

ARTIKEL UNTUK PENGUJIAN OJS (4 FEBRUARI 2026)

Jurnal Bahasa is a double-blind peer-reviewed journal published biannually, in June and December, by Dewan Bahasa dan Pustaka. The journal was first published in March 2001.

The aim of this journal is to develop the field of Malay linguistics. It is meant to be the space where linguists present their views and findings of their research in linguistics. Discussions in this journal deal with a variety of aspects concerning language, such as terminology, lexicography, grammar, etymology, computational linguistics and vocabulary. It is suitable to be used as reading and reference material for linguists, scholars and language teachers.

Jurnal Bahasa is indexed in MyJurnal and MyCite.
